

THE NATIONAL CHAMBER CHOIR
OF IRELAND

From the Sublime to the Ridiculous

Conducted by PAUL HILLIER
THURSDAY 16 JULY 2009. 6.30pm
NATIONAL GALLERY OF IRELAND

RTÉ lyric fm

THE NATIONAL CHAMBER CHOIR
OF IRELAND

From the Sublime
to the Ridiculous

Conducted by PAUL HILLIER

Featuring new works
from the Argentinian-American composer Ezequiel Viñao, (based on fragments from the epic poem, Beowulf) and by the young Irish composer Andrew Hamilton (based on the writings of Thomas Bernhard: 'Everything is ridiculous, when one thinks of death').

Seven Shakespeare Songs	GEORGE MACFARREN
Glorious Hill	GAVIN BRYARS
Everything Is Ridiculous	ANDREW HAMILTON
Beowulf: Scyld's Burial	EZEQUIEL VIÑAO
The Flight of Song	HOWARD SKEMPTON

Thursday 16th July 2009, 6.30pm
National Gallery of Ireland,
Merrion Square, Dublin 2
Tickets €14 (€12 conc)

For further information, please visit www.nationalchamberchoir.com

To book tickets, contact the National Chamber Choir of Ireland box office on 01 7005665